SPRING 2010

Makie vase

Come and view some exciting new developments in my silver and jewellery collections this spring. I'm showing new silver pieces including vases, sculptural objects and bowls at four venues across the UK with British Silver Week. I will also taking part in Cockpit Arts Open studios where I will be showcasing further developments to my Inclusion jewellery collection including a new range featuring uncut, natural black diamonds. For further information and images please see my website, www.mayaselway.com. If you would like to receive tickets to any of the events detailed below please let me know and I will pass any available complimentary tickets on to you. I hope to see you soon.
